

WHAT IS LOVE? PART 1

Love actually is all around, but this is not the love we see in this passage. I believe we are called as a church to provide a greater love than the world.

I am not surprised that the 4 great commandments are part of many church vision and mission statements, as they are the fundamental basis of our faith: to love God, love our neighbour, love one another as Jesus loved us, and to go and make disciples.

We can only do this by partnering with Jesus and with each other, this is how the most excellent way can be found and practiced - by putting Jesus first in our lives.

We can't claim to Love God and not love His Church, and we can't say we love church and not love others who are outside the church. We should long for them to be here with us.

01 — What is love?

What are your thoughts on this passage as we head into this new series on 1 Corinthians 13?

02 — The four 4 great commandments

Three of the four commandments centre on love. What are the different Biblical contexts for each one?

03 — Am nothing, gain nothing without love

To be fruitful we need to be in God, partnering with Jesus. What are some examples of how to be more loving to God, our neighbours, and one another?

04 — Practising what (Andy) preaches

What does loving in God's 'most excellent way' look like for you this week?
