

WHAT IS LOVE? PART 6

It can be easy, as we come to the end of our series on 1 Corinthians 13, to forget the context of the passage. If we're not careful, reading Chapter 13 many times on its own, as we have done, can falsely devalue the power of the Holy Spirit, and the gifts he has given us to express our faith to each other, and to the world.

It isn't power or love, it's the power of God through love. Without love, the gifts are empty. But without the gifts, love can just be a fuzzy feeling.

As Paul says at the start of his letter, their faith should rest on God's power. God's power is expressed through God's love. If we need to open our lives to the power of God again, so that the gifts of the Spirit are more a daily expression of our faith, let's do it.

01 — What is love?

We're at the end of our series! Thinking back, what were your expectations of this series, and were you right?

02 — Love through gifts

What spiritual gifts do you see in our church? What spiritual gifts do you have, or would like to have?

03 — Love in action

Andy reminded us that God's power is expressed through God's love. What does this look like in the Bible? Have you seen this in someone's life?

04 — Practising what (another Andy) preaches

Reflecting back on our sermon series, how will what you've learned change how you love God, love yourself, and love others?
